The Sophomore float won first place this year. Their theme presented an electric mixer and bowl with the caption. "Whip 'em into kitty cakes."

Seniors took second place. The float featured a train climbing up the mountain to Mountain Home saying "We know we can, we know we can . . ."

Juniors were presented with third place. A boot was kicking a tiger on the goal post and carried out the theme, "Boot 'Em."

Mike,
I think you're
one of the neatest
guys in the whole school. I consider you
one of my best friends.
I'm sorry if you think
I've been bitchin' you a lot.
Oh, well. I hope we'll always be friends. I really like you 'cause
you make me smile & laugh. Jack was sure a fun teacher
this year, huh. I'll miss him. I hope you'll see you this summer.
Don't drink, don't swear.
Well, you gave me the idea. Just kidding.
Thank you for caring. I'll year. Love ya,
Marc

Mike,
I am so sorry I was such a slow poke signing your annual. No, I really do want to sign it! I wish we would have had more time to talk.
I've hardly seen you all year.
I think you are one guy very cute & with a great personality. I hope we have some classes together next year but we probably won't have anything more than either History or English, because of our schedule.
I hope I see you around anyways! Have a great summer & think of me. I'll think of you.

Love ya,
Jacquie

Good luck

future!

Mike.
It's been fun this year
but it will be funner next year
I think. We will have parties every night.
I didn't think we would make it ~~you~~ through a whole year of 6th period but we did succeed.

Mike,

Thanks for all the fun at work that we had! Things wouldn't be the same without you. I'm sorry that things didn't out between us

"A True Friend is a Forever Friend."

After the rain we see a rainbow;
A promise it will rain no more,
And a pot of gold at the end of that rainbow.
Does that pot of gold mean riches,
happiness, or wealth?
Or is that pot our life-source for what will soon be?
Is the rainbow the learning process,
and the pot all of the gathered knowledge?
As the end of the rainbow grows nearer,
so does the pot of gold.
As we reach our final destination, we wonder if it's really final,
Or are there going to be new rainbows to follow?
Only after the rain, we will know.

The selected theme of the senior class of 1982 reflects the optimism and undaunted spirit of the future. While our world today struggles through the economic difficulties and troubled values of the adult society, we often lose sight of the future hopes and dreams of our youth gone by. Your optimism and spirit should be a guiding light for our generation today, and should show us the way to help assist you in removing the barriers that we have created through our own selfishness.

Your futures will entail jobs, careers, and professions not even known to us today. We try to teach the basics that will assist you in your endeavors, which perhaps maybe rainbows and promises, and then hope that what you find when you pursue your chosen career will be the fulfillment of those promises.

Many of us will be gone when you reach the time in your life to measure your success against what we have tried to do, but I hope your judgement of our efforts will be kind.

In Appreciation

Much preparation and thought have gone into producing this annual. We would like to thank the many people who helped us complete this yearbook. We would like to thank Mrs. B. for putting up with us and working with us so cheerfully. Special thanks to Danny Del Aguila for the picture on our good-bye page and for the Indian head for our cover design; Mr. Clark for drawing artwork for this year's advertising; Duke Kodesh, Mitch Walden, and Linda Hill for taking the pictures found in this annual; faculty members for allowing so many interruptions to their classes; Bobbie Dealy for all the effort she put forth into drawing up pages and advertising; and to the rest of the staff for standing behind us and our ideas. Special thanks to Kelly Miller for the help he has given us on the annual as co-editor. With this, we present to you the 1981-82 WAKAPA hoping that it will mean as much to you as it does to us!

Goodbye Buhl High School

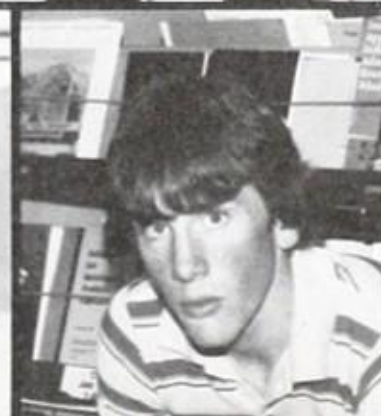

GRADUATION DAY

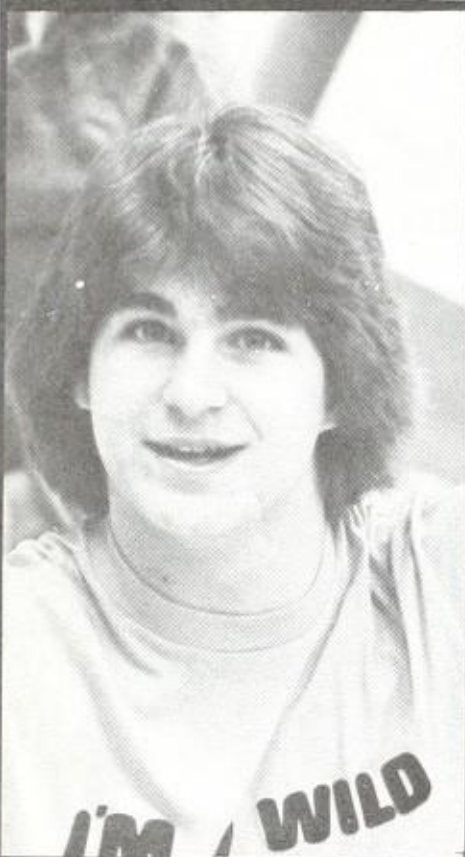

Today we'll start a new life
And we'll say our last goodbyes
To all the friends we've grown to love
With whom we've laughed and cried.

Remembering the fun and laughter
The problems and the fears,
And watching all our memories grow
Throughout our high school years.

The memories of the dances
And the new friends that we've met,
Vacations, teachers, talking,
And exams we'd never forget.

Yes, high school days are precious
but brief,
Where all your dreams come true;
It is not the end, but the beginning
Of a life we'll start anew.
